Summary/abstract

The purpose of the summary is to raise the readers' interest. The summary may also be used for the short version of the Newsletter and thus it is important to catch the readers' interest.

Content of Article

The article should be written in three sections, namely Introduction, Body and Conclusion. Please cite any quote if available., as well as any URL for the content.

Introduction

The introduction is used for introducing the subject to the reader. It also sets the framework of the study.

Body

This is the body of the article. ODF is encouraged. Please use figures, tables or photos to illustrate the article. Please keep in mind that these must be clear and in black-and-white. For photos and figures, use high-resolution TIF, GIF or JPG format.

Please submit original illustration files with the article. Put figures, and tables in the end of the article, and we will place the figures where appropriate in the layout of the article.

Conclusions

This section concludes the article and puts the work into a wider context. What are the results and how can they be used?
